

Values Into Action
Scotland

Values Into Action Scotland

Diversity Works 4U

A Modern apprenticeship Programme for young people on the autistic spectrum

Presenter(s):

Catherine Hurrell

Liam Simpson

made with
photosymbols[®]

Rights, choice and control for people with learning difficulties and individuals on the autistic spectrum

Aims:

Today we will do a short presentation of the history of DW4U

Show you some of our apprentices

Do a short exercise to demonstrate systematic instruction

Have a Q& A session

Diversity Works 4 U

We asked for funding to continue the work we had been doing

They said no, and then
they said yes.
If you can.....

Inverclyde

Glasgow

East Ayrshire

West Dunbartonshire

Support for job coaches

- Additional coaching
- Marketing
- On site training

Support for Employers

- Awareness Training
- Recruitment & Selection
- LEAN training
- On site coaching

Additional Funding

Support for the apprentices

- Additional training on/offsite
- Taking part in events
- Support to market themselves

Full time

Part time

Living wage, minimum wage

Apprentice rate

Support for Assessors

- Employer Liaison
- Apprentice Liaison
- Portfolio support

Direct referral fro MA

Already referred for SE

Conversion from employee to apprentice

Conversion from CWR

Some of our apprentices

James and his assessor Karen

Greg

Jordan

William

Calum

Stewart

2017 Scottish Apprenticeship Awards

West College Scotland Class of 2018

Systematic Instruction

Group exercise

Liam's story

Questions and answers

Thank you for listening to us today

If you want any further information about the work we do you can contact us in the following ways

01412123395 info@viascotland.org.uk

www.viascotland.org.uk

